
FEBRUARY 1, 1808.

Read the first and second time, and committed to a committee of the whole house, to-morrow

A Bill,

For the relief of the legal representatives of Thomas Barclay, deceased.

1 Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of 2 the United States of America, in congress assembled, That the 3 proper accounting officers of the treasury be, and they are hereby 4 authorized to liquidate and settle the account of Thomas Barclay, 5 deceased, and that they allow for his services, while he acted as 6 vice-consul in France, a salary at the rate of one thousand dollars
7 per annum; and that while he acted as consul, commercial agent, 8 commissioner of public accounts in Europe, and was engaged in 9 negotiating the treaty concluded with the emperor of Morocco,
10 in 1787, they allow a salary at the rate of three thousand three 11 hundred thirty-three and one third dollars per annum, exclusive of 12 his expenses; and that in the adjustment of his account with the 13 public, which originated in consequence of his second mission, they 14 credit him with the amount of goods purchased to take with him to 15 Morocco according to the letters of David Humphreys, esq. (for-16 merly minister from the United States to the court of Spain,) to 17 the secretary of state, and the invoices and memorandums trans-18 mitted by that minister to the government; and that they pay the 19 balance to the legal representatives of the said Thomas Barclay, 20 out of any monies in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.
